

104 Falcon Ridge Road

You'll want to bring all your friends to this charming house complete with a stone turret and gabled roof. This house opens like a story book to an exquisite stair case of burnished steel and polished hickory, designed and crafted by builder, Rick LeGrand.

$929,000

From the stunning Chandelier in the center of the house to the cozy arched doorways, breakfast nook, and inviting open living on the main floor, this home with two fire places is perfect for carefree living in a beautiful mountain setting, with 4 cozy bedrooms, a large rec room and a recessed hot tub with a gas grill on the deck.

970-385-5549

www.legrandconstruction.com

Directions:

550 north turn west into Twilight Peaks, turn right just inside gate. It's the first house on the right.