JUDGES

Judge #1: Sheri Rochford Figs - Director of the Art Center

Sheri Rochford Figs started at the DAC in January 2010 as the executive director. A Durango native, she served for over 30 years as the Dean of Admission & Development at Fort Lewis College and the Executive Director of the Fort Lewis College Foundation. Sheri retired from FLC in 2006. More recently, she was the Gallery Director for Sorrel Sky Gallery, and she has served on several non-profit boards. She provides the DAC with her experience, vision and leadership skills that are essential to its success.

Judge #2: Christina Renderle - Mayor

In 1999, Christina moved to Durango to work as botanist and researcher for Ecosystem Management International. Then during her time working as an office manager in a renovated building downtown, Christina discovered her passion for in-fill, green building practices, and reuse of centrally located space. Christina was also selected as one of the 2009 Center for Progressive Leadership Fellows, a non-partisan, statewide leadership development program. Christina currently sits on the Durango City Council as Mayor.

Judge #3: Emily Spencer - Catering Manager of the Strater Hotel

Emily Spencer joined the Strater's Sales and Catering team in 2005 bringing with her over 20 years of hotel sales and catering experience. Before joining the Strater hotel Emily was Regional Director of Catering for Bristol Hotels and Resorts in Dallas, Texas. Emily and her husband Todd live at Vallecito Lake with their two dogs, Mickey and Casey. Emily plays mandolin and violin, and sings bass with a women's barbershop group. Emily is very active in her church and is on the board as the Membership Chair of High Noon Rotary. Emily is also on the board of the Vallecito Community Center and is active in the Vallecito Service League.
